

THE PARKHURST PARTY.

Magdon House at Columbus, Ohio. C. A. Frank Johnson will succeed him. The center or main building on the campus of Morris Brown College is in course of erection. When completed Morris Brown will present a magnificent appearance and Bishop Turner and President J. M. Henderson will be happy. "Judge" T. M. Malone and Thomas Marshall Dent keep the boys down here well entertained with their bright articles to the "Age." Both of our she will remain in Philadelphia until the 1st of July when she will go to Buffalo to attend the Pan American Exposition and to take charge of the literature of the society. She has been invited to take up the work in Maine for a season and after leaving Buffalo she will spend the rest of the year in Maine. Mrs. Scott takes a hopeful view of the progress of the race in the South and sees a ray of hope in the future. The great amount of traveling done by her and the contact with so many different people enables her to see the situation in its true light.

Entertained by a Friend.
